The Imperfect Caregiver's Guide to Dementia Care

Presented by Bobbi Carducci, a sought-after speaker and workshop presenter on the subject of caring for someone with Alzheimer's or another form of dementia. She speaks from the heart about the realities of caregiving and her personal experience as a caregiver for her father-in-law.

Attendees will learn to let go of expectations and live in the moment.

When Bobbi Carducci's ill father-in-law came to live with her and her husband, Mike, she was unaware of the reason for his often odd behavior or how much her life was about to change. For the next seven years, Bobbi did everything she could to save him from himself, while he did everything he could to convince everyone that he didn't need her and that she was crazy. Bobbi was an in-home caregiver for her father-in-law, Rodger, for seven years. Issues they dealt with included schizophrenia, Parkinson's disease, age-related dementia, dysphagia, COPD and congestive heart failure.

"Confessions of an Imperfect Caregiver" perfectly encapsulates the human experience, not just the caregiver's. When we live in a world of worry, stress and self-doubt, where do we find the strength to go on? Bobbi's retelling of her caregiving years unfolds in a beautiful answer to the questions posed by sickness, health, care and loss."
